

Unit 11 — A Short Novel

---

Track G+M • Klasse 10 • Niveau G/M

Learning objectives

---

- I can read three chapters of a short novel and identify protagonist arc, theme, and one stylistic move.
- I can write a 250-word literary essay with one quote.
- *I can use whereas and while (contrast) and moreover / furthermore (addition).*

Lead-in

---

The class read three chapters of The Slow Lane by an imagined contemporary author — a short novel about a teenage long-distance runner. By chapter three, half the class had stopped seeing it as a sports book. Maja underlined the line running, like reading, is a way of staying still while you move. She showed the line to nobody for a week.

Key points

- Use sparingly — they cost weight. One per paragraph, not three.

Practise

- Choose: whereas / while / moreover / furthermore — ____ the fast intervals felt like proof, the slow lanes felt like training.
- Match: contrast → whereas/while; addition → moreover/furthermore. (T / F)
- Build 4 sentences with one connective each.

Your turn

Literary essay, 250 words. Read the extract. Answer: What is the protagonist's arc? What is the theme? Which stylistic move is doing the most work? Use 1 whereas + 1 moreover + 1 direct quote.

Reflect

- I can identify protagonist arc, theme, one stylistic move.
- I can use formal contrast and addition connectives.
- I can write a 250-word literary essay.
