

Unit 4 — Ireland: Stories from the Island

Track E • Klasse 8 • Niveau E

Niveau E

1. Reading

Read the text, then answer in full sentences.

Hi Hawa, today the wind tried to take my school bag along Salthill prom. I won. Galway is the kind of city where you can walk into a pub at lunchtime and find three musicians playing for the joy of it. My grandmother, who learned Irish (Gaeilge) as a first language, says the language is louder than ever. The shops where the staff speak only Irish are still rare, but they exist. I'll write more on Tuesday, which is when I'm meant to be doing homework but I'll probably write to you instead.

2. Practise

1. Choose: who, which, that, where. The musicians _____ play in the pub. The wind _____ took the bag. Galway is a place _____ the rain is constant.
2. Combine: Niamh has a grandmother. She learned Irish. → ____ .
3. Build 4 sentences with one relative clause each (use who, which, that, where).

3. Write

Place-portrait, 120 words. Write a short letter describing a place you know (or want to know) in an English-speaking country. Use 4 relative clauses.

Lösungen Controlled. 1. who / that — which / that — where.

2. Niamh has a grandmother who learned Irish.

Productive. 3. Open.

T1. west coast of Ireland, music, live music every lunchtime, Niamh.

T2. tried to take her school bag; live music; says it is louder than ever; on Tuesday — to her pen-pal.

T3. who/that, which/that, where, which.

T4. Open.