Unit 9 — Birthday and Friends

Track E · Klasse 5 · Niveau E

Learning objectives I

- I can give and accept an invitation politely.
- I can use ordinal numbers and dates in writing.
- I can write a 6-line birthday-invitation card.

Lead-in I

Mia's birthday is on the 17th of March. She is making invitations on bright pink paper. Theo, who claims pink is embarrassing, is also making invitations — on bright pink paper, because the green ran out. Frida steals one for the foxes. "It is the principle," she says, "of being included."

Reading I

Vocabulary — months and ordinals
Months: January–December. Ordinals: 1st first, 2nd second, 3rd third, 4th fourth, 5th fifth, 9th ninth, 12th twelfth, 21st twenty-first, 30th thirtieth. Spelling: fifth (not fiveth), ninth (no e), twelfth (drop ve).

Grammar — dates and prepositions

- My birthday is on March 17. / on the 17th of March.
- I'm 11 in March.

Reading II

- The party starts at 3 p.m.
- We meet on Saturday at 3 p.m. at my house.

Invitation phrases

- I'd like to invite you to my party.
- Would you like to come?
- I'd love to, thank you!

Reading III

- Sorry, I can’t make it, but thank you for asking.
- Please RSVP by Tuesday.

Practise I

Niveau E — controlled

1. Fill in in/on/at: My birthday is _____ March. The party is _____ Saturday _____ _____ 3 p.m.
2. Build the ordinal: 17 → ___ , 21 → ___ , 30 → ___ .

Niveau E — productive

3. Build a polite invitation (date, time, place, RSVP).
4. Build a polite refusal (one reason, thanks).

Your turn I

Birthday card swap. A6 paper. Front: drawing. Inside: a 6-line invitation (greeting, reason, date, time, place, RSVP, sign-off). Swap with a partner — they reply in writing (accept or polite refusal).

Sample

Dear Theo, I would like to invite you to my birthday party. It is on Saturday, 17 March, at 3 p.m. at my house. There will be cake and games. Please RSVP by Tuesday. Best wishes, Mia.

Reflect I
