Unit 4 — Food Around the World

Track E · Klasse 6 · Niveau E

Learning objectives I

- I can name 14 dishes from at least 8 countries.
- I can write a 6-line description of a meal with sensory detail.
- I can use like / love / enjoy / hate + -ing in 4 different sentences.

Lead-in I

Lina's class made an international food day. There were sushi rolls, samosas, falafel wraps, pierogi, tacos, jollof rice, a tray of perfect Spätzle, and two pies — one cherry, one a mystery savoury one with rosemary. Mr. Flint had two of everything, on what he called strict research grounds.

Vocabulary I

- sushi (Japan)
- pizza (Italy)
- pasta (Italy)
- paella (Spain)
- curry (India)
- pierogi (Poland)
- falafel (Middle East)
- tacos (Mexico)
- jollof rice (West Africa)
- Spätzle (Germany)

- She doesn't mind eating spicy food.

Reading II

- They prefer baking to frying.

Practise I

Niveau E — controlled

1. Match country and dish (any 6 pairs).
2. Fill in -ing: I enjoy _____ (cook). She doesn't mind _____ (eat) spicy. They prefer _____ (bake).

Niveau E — productive

3. Build 5 sentences using like, love, enjoy, hate, prefer + -ing.

Your turn I

Mini-poster — A Dish I Love. A4 paper. Top: name + country. Middle: drawing or sketch. Bottom: 6 sentences (ingredients, preparation, who eats it, occasion, sensory detail, why you love it).

Sample

Spätzle is a German pasta from Swabia. The dough is made of eggs, flour, and water. We press it through a small board into boiling water. We eat Spätzle with cheese and crispy onions. The smell of frying onions fills the kitchen for an hour. I love eating Spätzle on cold Sundays — it tastes like coming home.

Reflect I

- I can name 14 dishes from 8 countries.
- I can use like / enjoy / hate / prefer + -ing.
- I can describe a meal in 6 sentences with sensory detail.
