Unit 11 — Captain Cody's Map

Track G+M · Klasse 6 · Niveau G/M

Learning objectives I

- I can understand a short narrative with embedded clues.
- I can use will / going to to plan a journey.
- I can write 80 words continuing the Cody story.

Lead-in I

Sam pieced the two halves of Captain Cody's map together on Lina's kitchen table. Half from his envelope. Half from a hollow book in the school library. The whole map showed a coastline, an X, and the words Tomorrow's tide will tell. Lina stared at the map. "This is either the best or the worst week of our lives." Sam said, "Both, maybe."

Reading I

Reading — Captain Cody's Map (extract 2)
Tomorrow we are going to take the early train. We will meet at the station at 6 a.m. We will bring biscuits and a torch. We won't bring our phones — they spoil the mood. The plan: arrive, follow the coastline, count the steps from the lighthouse, and dig — but only with the lighthouse keeper's permission.

Grammar — will / going to (review)
will for predictions and spontaneous decisions:

- I will help you with that.

Reading II

be going to for plans and visible evidence:

- We are going to take the early train.

Time clauses: when, as soon as, before + present simple.

Practise I

Niveau G

1. Choose: will or going to: We have already booked tickets — we _____ travel tomorrow. Look at the clouds — it _____ rain.
2. Time clause: I will text you _____ I arrive. (as soon as / will)

Niveau M

3. Build 4 sentences: two with going to (plans) and two with will (predictions).

Your turn I

Story continuation. Write 80 words continuing Captain Cody's Map. What happens at the lighthouse? Use going to and will.

Sample

Sam and Lina arrived at the lighthouse at 7:30. The keeper was already up. "You're going to need a shovel," he said quietly, before they had asked anything. "And probably more biscuits than that." He gave them a small, worn shovel and a paper bag of ginger biscuits. "I'll be in the garden," he said. "Shout when you find something. Or when you give up. Either way, I will be making tea by the time you come back."

Reflect I

- I can read a story with embedded clues.
- I can use will / going to correctly.
- I can write a 80-word continuation.

Further reading / listening I

- Project Gutenberg — children’s adventure stories.
- Roald Dahl Stories Online — extracts.
