Unit 12 — Class Magazine Issue

Track G+M · Klasse 8 · Niveau G/M

Learning objectives I

- I can plan and write a 150-word article for a class magazine.
- I can use grammar from the year (passive, second conditional, relative clauses, present perfect).
- I can edit a peer's article using a simple checklist.

Lead-in I

The class is producing a one-issue magazine. Six pages. Six articles. Each student is responsible for one piece (~150 words) plus one piece of feedback on a peer's article. Hawa is writing about the canteen. Jonas is writing about the lost-property cupboard, which he claims has its own ecosystem.

Reading I

Article structure

1. Headline — short, sharp.
2. Lead — one sentence that says what / who / why now.
3. Body (3 short paragraphs): a fact, a story-detail, a quote.
4. Close — one line that lands.

Editing checklist

Reading II

- Headline under 8 words?
- One specific detail in the lead?
- At least one quote?
- Tense consistent within paragraphs?
- One mistake-prone area checked (passive forms / past simple irregulars / relative pronouns)?

Practise I

Niveau G

1. Match headline → article: Lost-Property Cupboard Has Its Own Ecosystem — A. lost things B. canteen C. school trip.
2. Build a 1-sentence lead for the new canteen rules.

Niveau M

3. Build a 3-paragraph body for an article of your choice. Include one quote.

Your turn I

Article, 150 words. Pick one topic from class life. Use 4 grammar points from the year (e.g. passive, relative clause, present perfect, contrast connective). Swap with a partner; edit using the checklist; rewrite.

Sample

The Canteen That Almost Worked

The new canteen rules, which were introduced on Monday, have already changed how lunch feels. Plates are now distributed in a single line. Drinks are served from a separate counter. Although the queue is shorter, several students have complained that the system removes the pause that used to be the lunch's best part. "It's faster, but I miss the chat," said one Klasse-8 student. The headteacher has agreed to review the rules in two weeks. In the meantime, lunch is a slightly different experience. If anyone has missed the old slow line, the next two weeks are the time to say so.

Your turn II

Reflect I

- I can write a 150-word article with a clear structure.
- I can use 4 grammar points in one piece.
- I can edit a peer’s article using a checklist.

Further reading / listening I

- BBC News — student journalism collection.
- The Guardian — school-magazine writing tips.