

Unit 8 — Civic English: Rights and Voices

Track G+M • Klasse 10 • Niveau G/M

Learning objectives

- I can read a short civic text and identify a stated right and a stated duty.
- I can use be entitled to, be required to, be expected to in formal contexts.
- I can hold a 3-minute civic-question conversation in formal English.

Lead-in

Maja's class read a one-page summary of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. They argued for twenty minutes about Article 12 — every child has the right to be heard in matters affecting them. Half the class said that's already true. The other half said that's poorly enforced. Mr. Yilmaz said: both can be true.

Vocabulary

- right
- duty
- obligation
- citizen
- resident
- constitution
- convention
- treaty
- ratify
- enforce
- entitled to
- required to

Practise

- Choose: entitled / required / expected — Children are _____ to express their views.
Adults are _____ to listen.
- Match: right → entitlement; duty → obligation; ratify → formally accept.
- Build 4 civic-English sentences using entitled / required / expected about a school or local civic topic.

Your turn

Pair speaking — Article 12 in our school. 3 min each direction. Question: How is the right to be heard handled in our school? Use 4 formal civic phrases + 1 cautious-claim phrase.

Reflect

- I can identify a right and a duty in a civic text.
- I can use formal entitlement / duty phrases.
- I can hold a 3-minute civic-question conversation in formal English.
