1. Vocabulary

Match each item to its meaning or use it in a sentence.

| Term           | Your note |
|----------------|-----------|
| motion         |           |
| proposition    |           |
| opposition     |           |
| moderator      |           |
| point of order |           |
| rebut          |           |
| concede        |           |
| argument       |           |
| evidence       |           |
| anecdote       |           |
| summary        |           |

2. Reading

Read the text, then answer in full sentences.

Opening: I'd like to argue / I would like to speak in favour / against ... Listing: Firstly ... Secondly ... Lastly ... Counter: My opponent claims ... / However, ... / In response, ... Concession: I accept that ... but ... Closing: Finally / To summarise / In short, I would urge you to support / oppose this motion.

3. Practise

1. Choose: opening / counter / closing: "I'd like to argue ..." → __; "My opponent claims ..." → __; "To summarise ..." → __.
2. Match: rebut → counter; concede → accept partly. (T / F)
3. Build a 4-sentence opening for or against the motion using 3 signposts.

4. Write

Class debate. Two teams of 4 + 1 moderator. Each speaker delivers a 90-second argument with 4 signposts. Listening team prepares one specific rebuttal per speaker. The moderator times strictly.

Lösungen G. 1. opening / counter / closing.

2. all true.

M. 3. Open.

T1. in favour; project work captures skills tests don't; fairness is hard; To summarise.

T2. in favour; project skills + real audiences; I accept that, but a clear rubric solves it; I urge you to support the motion.

T3. I'd like / Firstly / However / To summarise.

T4. Open.
