Track G+M · Klasse 6 · Niveau G/M

Lead-in I

Lina has a pen-pal in Tokyo. Sam has a pen-pal in Cape Town. The three of them compare their school days by e-mail. Tokyo: 8:00 to 15:30, six lessons and a cleaning duty. Cape Town: 7:45 to 14:30, with a break that involves actual fruit. Stuttgart: 7:55 to 13:20, no fruit, no cleaning. ”We are very specialised,” Lina jokes.

Reading I

Reading — Three school days
In Tokyo, students clean their classroom every day after lessons. In Cape Town, the school year starts in January. In Stuttgart, students have free periods if a teacher is absent. In Tokyo, lunch is served at school. In Cape Town, many students bring fruit. In Stuttgart, lunch is at home or in the canteen.

Grammar — comparatives revisited (Klasse 6)
Short adjectives: + -er: long → longer. Long adjectives: more + adjective: interesting → more interesting. Irregular: good → better, bad → worse. than introduces the second item: Tokyo's school day is longer than Stuttgart's.

2. Compare: Tokyo / Stuttgart / school day / longer → ___ .

3. Build 4 comparison sentences about Stuttgart vs. another country's school day.

Your turn I

Pen-pal comparison letter. Write 100 words to a pen-pal abroad describing your school day and comparing it to theirs (real or imagined). Use 5 comparatives.

Sample

Hi Hiro, my school day is shorter than yours, but I think yours is more interesting because you clean your classroom together every day. We don't do that, but I think it would be a better tradition than the one we have. We finish at 1:20 and I am always hungrier than my brother by lunchtime.

Reflect I

- I can build short and long comparative forms.
- I can compare two school days in 4 sentences.
- I can write a 100-word pen-pal letter.
