Unit 3 — Fairness at School

Track G+M · Klasse 8 · Niveau G/M

Learning objectives I

- I can argue a school-fairness point in 5 sentences.
- *I can use the second conditional (if I were … I would …).*
- *I can use connectives of contrast (although, however, on the other hand).*

Lead-in I

Jonas's class is voting on a new rule: no phones at lunch. Half the class is for it. The other half thinks it is mostly aimed at one group of students who happen to be loud anyway. Hawa says, "If I were the headteacher, I would ask why we are voting on phones and not on actual fairness."

Vocabulary I

- rule
- rights
- equal
- equality
- privilege
- discrimination
- exception
- vote
- debate
- agree
- disagree
- valid

Vocabulary I

- biased
- neutral
- inclusive

Reading I

Vocabulary — fairness rule, rights, equal, equality, privilege, discrimination, exception, vote, debate, agree, disagree, valid, biased, neutral, inclusive.

Grammar — second conditional
Structure: If + past simple, would + base verb.

- If I were the headteacher, I would change the rule.
- If we voted, it would be close.

Reading II

- I wouldn't ban phones if I had to enforce the rule myself.

Were (not was) is preferred for I/he/she/it in formal writing: If I were you …

Connectives of contrast although, however, on the other hand, even though, still, but, yet.

- Although the rule is meant to help, it doesn't.
- However, I see the point of the original idea.
- On the other hand, fairness has limits.

Practise I

Niveau G

1. Fill in second conditional: If I _____ (be) the headteacher, I _____ (change) the rule.
2. Connective fill-in: ___ I agree with the rule, I think it is unfair to one group. (although)

Niveau M

3. Build 3 second-conditional sentences and 2 contrast sentences about a school rule you would change.

Your turn I

Mini-debate. Two teams of 4. The motion: This class would replace the no-phones rule with a no-loud-phones rule. Each speaker uses one second conditional + one contrast connective. Two minutes per side.

Sample
— If we replaced the rule, we would still have quiet lunch tables. However, some people just wouldn't follow it. — On the other hand, the current rule punishes everyone for the loudness of a few.

Reflect I

- I can argue a school-fairness point in 5 sentences.
- I can use the second conditional in writing.
- I can use 3 connectives of contrast.
