Unit 10 — Project and Presentation

Track G+M · Klasse 10 · Niveau G/M

Learning objectives I

- I can plan a 4-week project with concrete milestones.
- I can deliver a 5-minute presentation with three movements (problem, evidence, ask).
- I can use signposting language for spoken and written project work.

Lead-in I

Mr. Yilmaz handed out a one-page brief: Pick one small civic problem in your area. Spend four weeks investigating it. Present your findings to the class in five minutes. Maja chose the bus stop where the bench had been broken since November. Sam chose the lost-property cupboard, which has its own ecosystem.

Reading I

Project structure — 4 weeks
Week 1: Frame the question. One sentence. Why now? Week 2: Gather evidence. Two sources minimum. Week 3: Talk to one person affected. Week 4: Build the ask — what specifically should change?

Presentation — three movements

1. Problem (60 sec). Concrete, specific, named.
2. Evidence (180 sec). Two sources + one quote from a real person.

Reading II

3. Ask (60 sec). What you want the audience to do.

Plus 30 sec buffer for questions.

Signposts (spoken)
Today I'd like to talk about … / Let me start with the problem … / The evidence falls into two parts … / I spoke to … / What I'm asking is this … / Thank you for listening.

Practise I

Niveau G

1. Match: Week 1 → frame; Week 2 → evidence; Week 3 → interview; Week 4 → ask.
2. Choose signpost: (opening) → ___ ; (closing) → ___ .

Niveau M

3. Draft the bullets for your own 5-minute presentation.

Your turn I

Class presentations. Each student delivers a 5-minute presentation. Audience uses I noticed / what worked / one thing you could try feedback.

Sample

Today I'd like to talk about the broken bench at the Mühlstraße bus stop. The bench has been broken since November. Let me start with the problem: at least 12 elderly residents wait for the 14 bus there at 9:14 every morning, and they have been standing for the past five months. The evidence falls into two parts: the city council's online maintenance ticket from December (still open) and my own count over five weekday mornings. I spoke to Mrs Schmidt, who lives two streets away. "I have to balance against the pole," she said. "That isn't a bus stop, that's a rehearsal for a fall.” What I’m asking is this: could the class write a single, dated joint letter to the council? One letter, one date, one specific request. Thank you for listening.

Reflect I

- I can plan a 4-week project with milestones.
- I can deliver a 5-minute three-movement presentation.
- I can use 5 signposting phrases.
